

BEYOND THE BARS

From Reentry to Reconciliation

This free day-long event hosted by Brooklyn Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers) will focus on mass incarceration, community organizing, and political advocacy around issues of racial profiling, educating attendees about our country's prison industrial complex and equipping them with the tools to advocate and organize at all political levels. Lunch will be provided.

Featuring

- The Innocence Project
- American Friends Service Committee
- Books Through Bars
- Brooklyn For Peace
- The Doe Fund
- New York State Council of Churches
- Project Renewal
- and more

Saturday, October 29
10am-4pm

Brooklyn Monthly Meeting
110 Schermerhorn Street

Registration and a continental breakfast will be from 9-10am.

RSVP by October 23 to mjminnich@gmail.com or 412.592.1671